MMH&RV Association Membership Application Form

The undersigned hereby applies to the Board of Directors for membership in the MMH&RV Association, a voluntary corporation of dealers, manufacturers and suppliers engaged in the manufactured housing and recreational vehicle industry.

It is understood and agreed that in being accepted as a dues paying member of the MMH&RV Association, this company and its management will abide by such rules and regulations which are established for the orderly and business-like operation of the association, and the following MMH&RVA Code of Ethics:

Section 1:

Members of the MMH&RVA shall endeavor to maintain the following Code of Ethics:

- (a) I shall try to conduct myself and my business in such a way that no discredit will come to either MMH&RVA or the industry because of me.
- (b) I shall operate my business at the highest level possible of integrity and sound management practices.
- (c) I shall promote the Manufactured Housing and the Recreational Vehicle Industry to the general public as well as State, County and Local Public Officials.
- (d) I shall treat customers in a manner which brings credit and prestige to the MMH&RVA.

"Contributions or gifts to MMH&RVA are not tax deductible as charitable contributions for income tax purposes. However, they may be tax deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses subject to restrictions imposed as a result of association lobbying activities. MMH&RVA estimates that in any year we estimate the nondeductible portion of your dues - the portion which is allowable to lobbying - is 15%."
